A party of musical emigrants from Kansas, with bass viol, harp, violin and guitar, have been in our midst for a week and struck chords that have long been unstrung.

The party took possession of the music stand in the Plaza last Saturday night and their performance drew a crowd around them which listened to the dulcet strains for a brief space ntranced.

A suggestion was made that it was "a long time between drinks," when the whole party, on the invitation of Doc Tompkins, proceeded to Jack son & Tompkins' saloon, where several dozen of champague were opened and the goese was finally elevated to a proper beight.

grain required for army and Indian supplies in Arizona is raised here, we note that large quanties of bacon and pork are consumed in the Territory, nearly all of which is brought in from Grain is now as cheap in the Gila and Salt River valleys as It is in any portion of California, and our people ought to take the contracts for supplying the army here with bacon as well as with flour and beans.

On the fourth page of this paper is an item showing the value of alfalfa for hog raising, which our farmers should consider.

Man Walch, in Ch'no Valley, has a few acres of mifalls which pay better than any other equal area on his farm. He cuts four or five crops of hay during the season and sells it for $50 per ton, but those who can irrigate their land who are distant from a market for hay, might do better to raise alfalfa and corn for hogs than to raise grain for sale to contractors at present rates.

INDIAN CONTRACTS NOT LET .- Parties who went to the Verde reservation last week to bid for furnishing Indian supplies according to Dr. J. Williams' advertisement, were disappointed, as the Dr. received a despatch from Washington the day before, advising him that no such contracts could be let; that no appropriation is available for purchasing such supplies, and that the contractors of last year having signified their willingness to supply the articles needed, and wait for Congress to pay them by a deficiency appropriation, they would be allowed to do so.

D. P. Foster, post trader at Camp Hualpal, came to Prescott Thursday last. He reports the complete abandonment of that post. All the lumber buildings except the post commander's house have been taken down and the material will be used elsewhere. F. Schimpf has charge of the Government property remaining there, and Sergt, Phil. Henry is standing orderly. Mr. Foster intends to keep his store open as a road station, and to live there and go to sheep raising.
